Transport and accommodation

10 Years of the Adriatic Ionian Euroregion

Pula, 2 July 2016

TRANSPORT

Pula is the largest city in the Region of Istria, situated at the southern tip of the Istria peninsula. The highway "Istria Ypsilon" connects Pula with Trieste and Koper on the west, with Villach and Ljubljana on the north, and with Zagreb and Rijeka on the east. The traffic infrastructure of Pula consists of a road, railway and air network. The public city transport is performed by buses and car taxi service operating in regular lines and according to a pre-set schedule.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE POINTS
